

Commitments next year:

- Advertising
 - I've spoken to so many people who don't even know DUCC exists! We need to advertise as much as possible:
 - Newspaper & radio
 - Posters around colleges
 - Connecting with other societies & advertising to them
 - Promoting the club's diversity (competition, adventure & muck-abouters)
 - Push in 2nd term to attract those who want to pick up something else after the chaos of freshers
- Looking after freshers
 - E.g. polo rules & tips crib sheets
 - Taking an extra care to welcome people who join later into term (as this can be intimidating if you don't know what you're doing)
- Faff
 - Reduce time we spend loading cars (bold claim I know- but I'm hoping my organisation might contribute)
- Back up captain
 - I want the Vice's role to be super supportive of the captain
- Stash
 - I promise to ask about returning the purple stripe on the tracksuit bottoms
 - Asking for bulk-buy discounts
- Sponsorship
 - During summer I'll write to canoe kit companies to ask for discounts (maybe contacting other uni canoe clubs & similar societies to see where they've been successful)
- Other societies
 - I want to boost our connection with other adventurous societies e.g. hill-walking have promised me they will invite us to the ceilidh this year
 - Society swaps if people are interested (e.g. I've never been caving or skiing??)
- Friends Liaison
 - I'm organised & speedy at responding to messages & emails

LUCY VICE-CAPTAIN

Proposer: Nicole Hudson Second: George Padolsey

About Me- I'm Lucy, a first year Geographer who loves being outdoors and who annoys her friends far too much by constantly talking about canoeing! I'm also a fence-sitter when it comes to the polo-river debate. Before uni I thought kayaking involved monotonously paddling up and down a flat river, but I was proved so wrong! I love the combination of high-level competitive team sport and fitness; fear, thrill, and fun; but also the option for a chill, friendly approach to the club.
